

NEW JERSEY COUNCIL FOR THE SOCIAL STUDIES

a professional organization for the advancement of the social studies in schools and colleges

affiliated with National Council for the Social Studies · New Jersey Education Association

Joseph Orlak, President, jorlak@pascack.org
Hank Bitten, Executive Director, hank.bitten@rutgers.edu
<http://www.njcss.org>

Rutgers, The State University, Busch Campus
640 Bartholomew Road, Suite 103
Piscataway, NJ 08854
848-445-3413

OUTSTANDING STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT IN SOCIAL STUDIES AWARD 2017 Grades 6-12

We will be recognizing three students for their outstanding achievement in November with a plaque. Nominated students should show exemplary contribution to the study and/or promotion of the Social Studies. This may come in the form of outstanding research, contributions to civic engagement, leadership within the school community (i.e. starting or taking a Social Studies-based club to a new level.) Other contributions may be considered as well. Send us your nomination for this Award by:

September 30, 2017:

Student Name _____

School _____

Parent Email or Phone Number: _____

Grade Level _____

Recommended by _____

Recommender's Email or Phone Number: _____

- Evidence of strong ability to promote the development of democratic beliefs and values and the skills needed for citizen activism and engagement.
- Evidence of ability may be demonstrated by letters from teachers, supervisors, principals, superintendents or community leaders.
- Evidence of involvement in social studies educational activities may be documented by participation in activities such as research papers or essays, community activities, Social Studies-based clubs, media presentations or similar activities. (Evidence may be provided electronically)
- Nominated students must be attending a school in New Jersey.
- Maximum THREE letters of recommendation.

Send this form and your letter by September 30, 2017 to:

Joseph Orlak, Awards Committee Chair
Pascack Regional High School
225 West Grand Ave.
Montvale, NJ 07645

jorlak@pascack.org