

2019

ANNIVERSARY IN THE SCHOOLS WEBINAR

BEGINNING
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11

REGISTRATION
NOW OPEN

THE 9/11 MEMORIAL & MUSEUM INVITES

teachers and students to participate in a FREE webinar commemorating the 18th anniversary of 9/11.

Connect with Museum staff and guest speakers to hear first-person stories about the attacks and recognize the importance of commemoration during this 35-minute program.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Sofia Lachapelle*, a TV reporter who covered the World Trade Center attack live for Univision

Col. Mark Lewis, an Army officer who was inside the Pentagon and helped direct evacuees and search for survivors

Kathy Dillaber, a Pentagon survivor and 9/11 family member whose sister, Patricia Mickley, was killed in the attack

Jeff Johnson, a firefighter from FDNY Engine 74 who helped evacuate survivors from the World Trade Center

Frank Razzano, a D.C based-lawyer who successfully evacuated the World Trade Center with the assistance of FDNY firefighter Jeff Johnson *Sofia Lachapelle's story will be presented in English and Spanish.

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO REGISTER

visit 911memorial.org/webinar or email anniversaryintheschools@911memorial.org.

The webinar will be interpreted in American Sign Language and captioned. An audio description will also be available. This webinar is made possible thanks to the generous support from the New York Life Foundation.

9/11 MEMORIAL & MUSEUM

911memorial.org/webinar