

NEW JERSEY COUNCIL FOR THE SOCIAL STUDIES ANNUAL CONFERENCE

www.njcss.org

CALL FOR PROPOSALS: Due: June 15, 2022

Annual Conference for K-12 Social Studies Teachers

Welcome Back!

“Time to Talk about Educating for Democracy in a Challenging World”

Busch Campus Center, Rutgers University, Piscataway, NJ

Tuesday, October 25, 2022

Workshop Title: _____

Name(s) of Presenters: _____

School/University/Organization: _____

Address: _____ City: _____ Zip Code: _____

Phone: _____ Email Address: _____

Proposal Abstract: Attach an abstract with the following numbered format, not to exceed one single-sided page:

1. Title of your workshop.
2. 150-word description of your workshop, which will appear in conference book along with Workshop Title.
3. The objectives and the approaches and/or instructional strategies that you will share.
4. The activities workshop attendees will participate in and materials you will review, share and/or provide.
5. Specific relationship to the 2020 NJ Learning Outcomes and Disciplinary Concepts

In addition to workshops for social studies/history teachers in grades 6-8 and 9-12, our conference includes defined presentations for teachers of Psychology and social studies teachers in Grades K-5. This year’s conference will be very selective regarding workshops with direct application to the Standards for each grade band. Presenters should model and describe engaging, interactive and/or interdisciplinary strategies in social studies.

Grade Levels: K-2 3-5 6-8 9-12 All Levels

Themes: K-2 Disciplinary Concepts for History, Civics, Geography, Economics
 3-5 Disciplinary Concepts for History, Civics, Geography, Economics

 6-8 U.S. History – (Civics, American Revolution, Infrastructure, Climate, Elections, etc.)
 6-8 World History – (Foreign Policy, Classical Civilizations, Middle Ages, Religions)

 9-12 U.S. History (Constitution, Civil Rights, Presidents, Women, Asian Americans)
 9-12 World History (Communism, Conflict, Renaissance (Reformation, Revolution)

 State mandates for Holocaust, Amistad, LGBTQ & People with Disabilities, Asian American & Pacific Islanders, Financial Literacy
 Climate change, Foreign Policy Decisions, Civics
 Other (Technology, Literacy, Assessment, Curriculum, Global Issues, Writing, Interdisciplinary)

Length: All workshops will be one hour long

Description of Workshop:

Objectives of Workshop:

Instructional Strategies and/or Activities:

Explain how this workshop will engage teachers:

Materials teachers will receive: (Materials may be uploaded to our Google Drive folder)

Screens, projectors, chairs, tables, electricity, Wifi and AV carts will be provided for each workshop. Laptops, speakers, and all other equipment and adaptors, as well as copies of handouts, are the responsibility of the presenters and will NOT be provided by NJCSS. Presenters are asked to pay $50, which includes a 'business breakfast' and membership through August 31, 2023.

Decisions on our Call for Proposals will be announced around July 20, 2022.

Return to New Jersey Council for the Social Studies
Rutgers University, Busch Campus
640 Bartholomew Road, Suite 103
Piscataway, NJ 08854
Email: hbitten@optonline.net