YOUNG Patriot's Day

Young Patriot's Day 2019 will be held at the Princeton Battlefield State Park on Saturday, September 21 from 10 am to 4 pm.

The rain date is September 28. We invite all school-age children to come out for a day full of American history, demonstrations, activity, and fun, including . . .

- Re-enactors from the New Jersey Greys who will involve young patriots in activities and demonstrate military drills and artillery
- "Discover Princeton Battlefield" tours and activities as well as a Thomas Clarke House visit and tour
- Join us for a flag raising ceremony with General George Washington
- Learn about colonial life
- Talk with Ben Franklin, Betsy Ross and George Washington
- See th display of miniature soldier
- Participate in games and activities
- Visit with area historic organizations and sites

A schedule of activities will be available on our website along with information on how your family can register for the day. We suggest that families bring a picnic basket and camera and enjoy the beautiful landscape. All registered young patriots will receive a special welcome package. So sign up today at www.pbs1777.org.
